

WORKWEAR

WORKWEAR IS NOW AN ESSENTIAL PART OF KEEPING A COMPANY'S STAFF CLEAN, COMFORTABLE, WARM, AND IS IN KEEPING WITH THE COMPANY'S CORPORATE IMAGE AND SAFETY POLICIES. YOUR CORPORATE IMAGE IS DISPLAYED TO THE PUBLIC AND YOUR CUSTOMERS IN ALL ASPECTS OF YOUR PROTECTIVE CLOTHING OF EMPLOYEES, WHO ARE IN THE FRONT LINE OF YOUR BUSINESS. IT PRESENTS AN OPPORTUNITY FOR YOUR COMPANY TO BE DISPLAYED IN A POSITIVE IMAGE AND CAN ASSIST IN THE BONDING OF EMPLOYEES WITH THE COMPANY.

CORPORATE IDENTITY

LOGO EMBROIDERY:

Embroidery is a process where logos are stitched onto garments. The garment is placed in a clamp and positioned under one of the needle heads of the machine. There are 12 needle heads on a machine, so 12 garments can be embroidered on the same machine at the same time.

No matter how many colours or how intricate a company logo or name design may be, it can be embroidered on to the garment involved. Naturally, some fabrics are easier and more suitable for embroidery. There is an initial setup charge for the design disc to be produced, but once that is setup, the disc can be used for all future embroideries. Logo embroidery holds up perfectly under laundry conditions and adds commercial value to the newly embroidered garment.

SCREEN PRINTING

Predominantly used for hi-visibility garments, industrial ink is used to print a company logo or required message on the back or front of the garment. The most common and economical logo print is done in 1 colour, but can also be done in 2 or more colours.

There is no setup charge for the logo print and once a logo is on file it can be used as a formula for printing all future garments for that customer. Garments with ink print logos can be washed according to normal washing procedures as indicated on the label of the garment.

This is the most economical method for large printing quantities.

IN-HOUSE HEAT SEALING

We stock customers' logos and heat seal the logo onto garments as required using our in-house heat seal machine. Logo stocking is subject to agreement and commitment from customers.
